

Malmedy

At the foot of the 'Hautes Fagnes' nature reserve, Malmedy has some wonderful surprises in store for you. It is imbued with the soul of its cathedral, its treasure and its monastery. The latter is home to the Malmundarium, a cultural and tourist centre which traces 14 centuries of history in the town, its ancient trades and industries (tanneries, papermaking), as well as its vibrant carnival.

Enjoy walking around the friendly town centre. Admire the obelisk from 1781 and have fun discovering the street names translated into Walloon dialect.

Crossed by the RAVeL, Malmedy is a great starting point for sumptuous hikes on its hilly terrain. Dazzling views guaranteed. Other must-sees in the area: the Château de Reinhardstein, the Microbrasserie de Bellevaux and the Baugnez 44 museum, which recounts a tragic episode of the Second World War.

What To See and Do

1 Malmundarium

Located in the former monastery of Malmedy, the must-see Malmundarium is a place of art, history, memorial and culture. You will appreciate the beauty of the magnificently restored places as much as the museum tour which is interactive and fun. The site is divided into different spaces exhibiting the past and present of Malmedy: information and documentation centre, temporary exhibitions, art or history gallery, a leather workshop, carnival workshop, or even paper.

Place du Châtelet 10 • 4960 Malmedy

3 'Poudingue' Walk

The Calvary of Malmedy, located on the hill of Livremont, is considered one of the most beautiful sites in town, and the path that leads there is just as pretty. Once the 14 stopping points up to the Calvary originally had a religious purpose, but today it allows visitors to get a prime vantage point of an exceptional landscape. Indeed, the hill has the particularity of being entirely made up of 'pudding stone', a reddish geological curiosity unique in Belgium.
